TCDG is the Firm to Trust for Civil Litigation

TEAGUE CAMPBELL DENNIS & GORHAM, LLP IS THE GO-TO firm for civil litigation. From multinational companies to small businesses, from government entities to individuals, TCDG has been representing clients in all of North Carolina's state and federal courts since 1946.

DIVERSE PRACTICE AREAS TCDG's practice is dedicated to the defense of civil litigation matters. Practice areas include premises and products liability; medical, nursing home, legal and other professional liability; workers' compensation; construction law; environmental law, including toxic torts; corporate, nonprofit and other business litigation; trucking and commercial transportation law; motor vehicle negligence; governmental and municipal law; employment law; insurance coverage disputes; and arson and fraud.

TENACIOUS LITIGATORS While its practice areas are many, TCDG has a single objective: to obtain successful solutions for its clients. The firm's attorneys accomplish this goal by bringing all of their collective knowledge to bear for each client. Comprised of tenacious, experienced litigators, each with their own areas of concentration, TCDG combines large-firm expertise with small-firm values. The firm provides a collaborative team with the resources, knowledge and talent to aggressively protect the interests of its clients.

EXPERIENCED LEADERS TCDG handles cases in all of the state's civil and federal courts, as well as before the North Carolina Industrial Commission, Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, Employment Security Commission and professional licensing boards. It is also a leader in appellate law, having appeared as counsel of record in many landmark decisions that have defined the basic tenets of North Carolina civil litigation and workers' compensation law. This depth of experience makes TCDG's attorneys uniquely equipped to assist clients in a wide range of litigation matters. Yet when a case calls for early resolution, its attorneys stand ready with aggressive, results-oriented negotiation skills to attain favorable settlements for their clients.

BEYOND REPRESENTATION TCDG's client services go well beyond mere representation. To minimize its clients' legal costs, the firm provides advice designed to prevent litigation. Its attorneys also offer their clients practical and proactive guidance to help them navigate a complex legal system. In addition, TCDG publishes a quarterly liability newsletter and monthly workers' compensation newsletter to keep its clients current on developments in the law.

TCDG's exclusive focus on civil litigation, combined with the skill and experience of its attorneys, gives the firm a level of expertise beyond that of larger, more generalized firms. If winning is the goal, TCDG is the firm to trust for civil litigation.
